

Tropical Hardwood Specification Guide

Premium South American Hardwoods for Marine,
Construction & Architectural Applications

TradiCore Hardwood Portfolio

Distributor-ready specification guide for premium tropical woods

Why Choose TradiCore?

Premium tropical hardwood species with distinctive durability and appearance profiles

Options for marine work, decking, flooring, millwork, furniture and heavy construction

Clear species-by-species descriptions for faster customer decisions

Consistent branding and contact information for buyer follow-up

12+

Species

5

Core applications

Direct

Buyer support

BAS — Basralocus

Double-column Sappanwood

Description

Known for high durability and resistance to marine borers, making it suitable for marine construction.

Appearance

Golden to rust-brown heartwood with a relatively straight grain.

Recommended Applications

Marine

Decking

Industrial

Property	Grade
Durability	High
Density	Heavy
Finish	Premium
Supply	Available

Sample images from original specification guide

BGR — Berg Gronfolo

Quare Wood

Description

Also known as Mondio, this moderately durable wood is commonly used for interior joinery.

Appearance

Pinkish-brown to red-brown color, sometimes with an olive tint and white substance in the pores.

Recommended Applications

Joinery

Millwork

Furniture

Property	Grade
Durability	High
Density	Heavy
Finish	Premium
Supply	Available

Sample images from original specification guide

WAN — Wana

Red Nick Camphor

Description

High-quality timber used for decking and boat building.

Appearance

Light brown with pink to red-brown shades and an interlocked grain.

Recommended Applications

Boat Build

Decking

Trim

Property	Grade
Durability	High
Density	Heavy
Finish	Premium
Supply	Available

Sample images from original specification guide

ZWK — Zwarte

Dragon-Phoenix Sandalwood

Description

Known as Tatabu, valued for decorative appearance and high luster.

Appearance

Chocolate-brown heartwood that turns lighter when dry, often with a waxy golden luster.

Recommended Applications

Decorative

Furniture

Paneling

Property	Grade
Durability	High
Density	Heavy
Finish	Premium
Supply	Available

Sample images from original specification guide

RLO — Rode Locus

Jatoba

Description

Widely used for high-end flooring and furniture because of its extreme hardness.

Appearance

Orange-brown to deep red-brown, often with darker streaks.

Recommended Applications

Flooring

Furniture

Stairs

Property	Grade
Durability	High
Density	Heavy
Finish	Premium
Supply	Available

MKG — Makagrín

Ipe / White Cedar

Description

Often referred to as White Cedar in trade; used for interior trim and flooring.

Appearance

Yellowish or grayish-brown heartwood with a slight olive or reddish tinge.

Recommended Applications

Trim

Flooring

Interior

Property	Grade
Durability	High
Density	Heavy
Finish	Premium
Supply	Available

Sample images from original specification guide

WPL — Horse-hoof Bean

Witte

Description

Dense, stable wood used for structural work.

Appearance

Pale yellow to creamy white heartwood with fine texture and a clean modern look when polished.

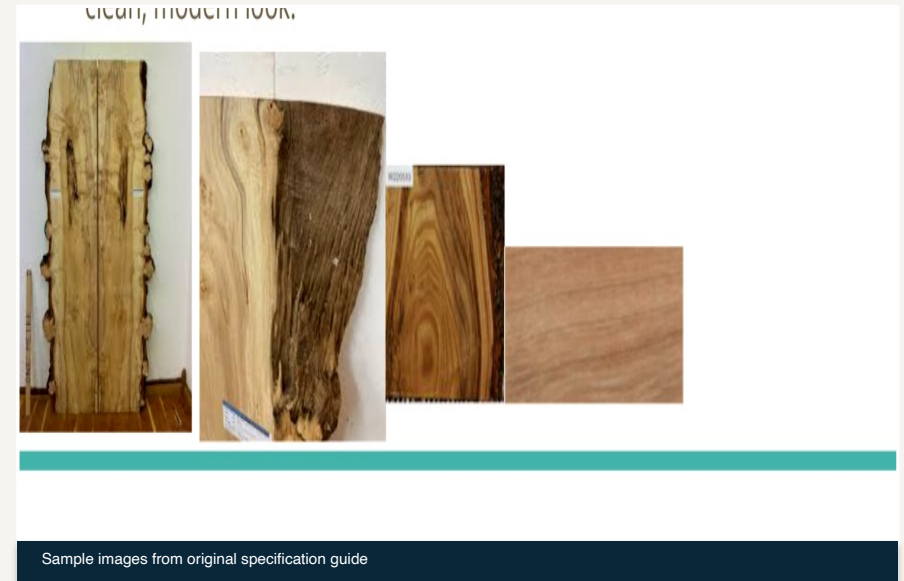

Recommended Applications

Structural

Modern

Panels

Property	Grade
Durability	High
Density	Heavy
Finish	Premium
Supply	Available

MKB — Watai Bean

Maka Kabbes

Description

Heavy-duty construction timber widely distributed in South America and known for high rot resistance.

Appearance

Deep reddish-brown to chocolate color with darker streaks and a natural luster.

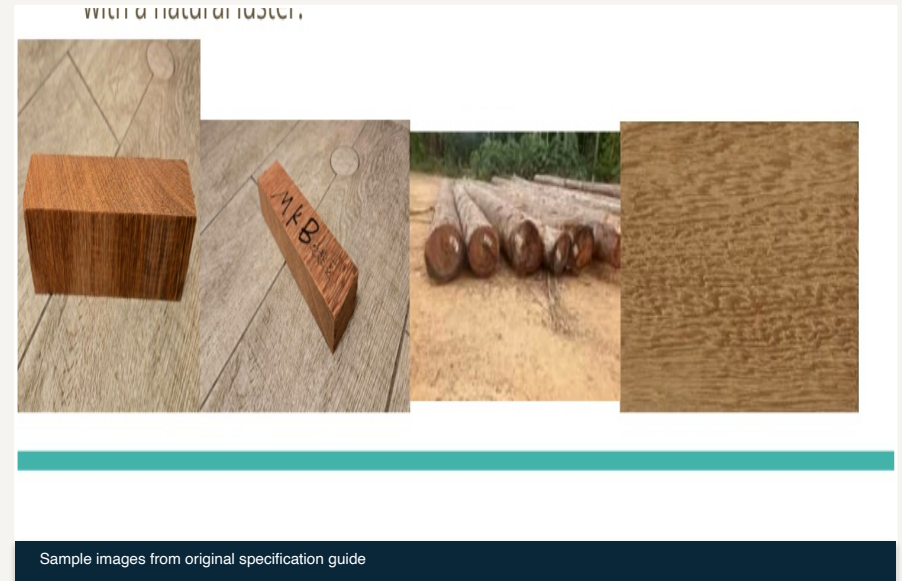

Recommended Applications

Heavy Build

Exterior

Marine

Property	Grade
Durability	High
Density	Heavy
Finish	Premium
Supply	Available

ROK — Rode Kabbes

Red Chicken-Wing

Description

Hard and heavy South American wood used in demanding construction applications.

Appearance

Brick-red to dark red-brown heartwood with coarse texture that can resemble Red Palm wood.

Recommended Applications

Construction

Heavy Duty

Beams

Property	Grade
Durability	High
Density	Heavy
Finish	Premium
Supply	Available

Sample images from original specification guide

KOE — White Sourwood

Koenatepi

Description

Popular in the fine furniture market; easy to machine with a refined finish.

Appearance

Light red to reddish-brown with clear, straight grain lines and a warm tone.

Recommended Applications

Furniture

Cabinetry

Finish

Property	Grade
Durability	High
Density	Heavy
Finish	Premium
Supply	Available

straight grain lines. It has a warmer, lighter tone compared to darker "sourwood" varieties

Sample images from original specification guide

BRH — Chicken-wing Wood

Bruinhart

Description

Known for dramatic grain resembling feathers; a premium choice for high-end traditional furniture.

Appearance

Alternating dark and light V-shaped patterns; heartwood is usually dark brown or chestnut brown.

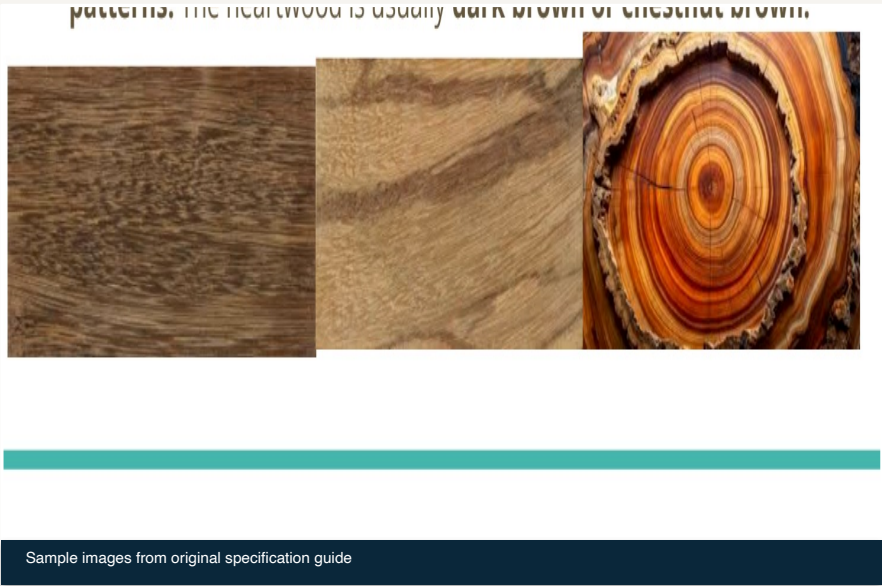

Recommended Applications

Luxury

Furniture

Veneer

Property	Grade
Durability	High
Density	Heavy
Finish	Premium
Supply	Available

GRH — Rosewood

Purple Sandalwood

Description

Exceptionally dense wood prized for fine carvings, instruments and specialty pieces.

Appearance

Freshly cut wood is orange-red, aging to deep purple or blackish-purple with ox-hair grain.

Recommended Applications

Carving

Instruments

Luxury

Property	Grade
Durability	High
Density	Heavy
Finish	Premium
Supply	Available

PRH — Purpleheart

Purpur Hart

Description

Extremely popular for unique natural color and high strength.

Appearance

Grayish-brown when freshly cut, quickly turning deep eggplant purple with light exposure.

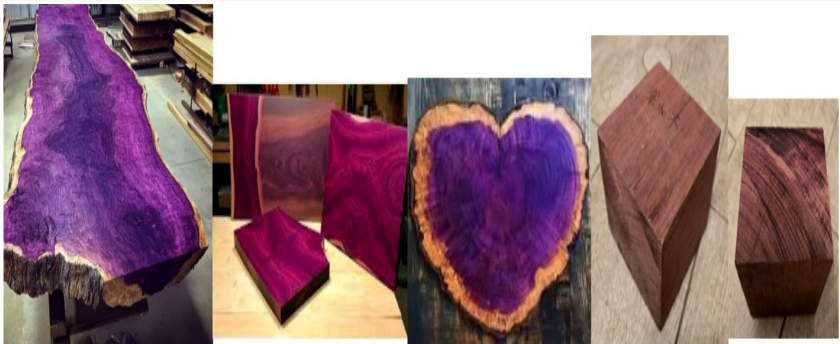

Recommended Applications

Flooring

Furniture

Accent

Property	Grade
Durability	High
Density	Heavy
Finish	Premium
Supply	Available

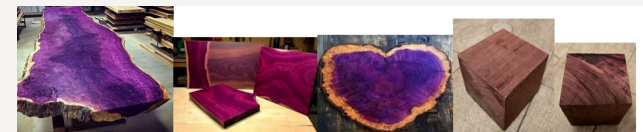

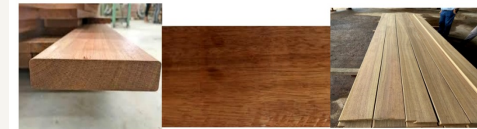

Sample images from original specification guide

Application Fit Matrix

Fast reference for matching species to customer needs

Species	Marine	Flooring	Furniture	Construction
Basralocus	Excellent	Good	Good	Excellent
Jatoba	Good	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent
Purpleheart	Good	Excellent	Excellent	Good
Watai Bean	Excellent	Good	Good	Excellent
Rosewood	Specialty	Good	Excellent	Specialty
Chicken-wing	Good	Good	Excellent	Good

Use this matrix as a quick sales guide. For final purchasing decisions, confirm dimensions, availability and project requirements with TradiCore.

Contact TradiCore LLC

Premium Tropical Hardwoods Imported Directly from South America

1100 Sheridan Rd, Suite 5, Winthrop Harbor, IL 60096
Mohammad Akhtar: 847-505-3302 | Alan Pan: 224-715-6452
tradicoreusa@gmail.com

Thank you